

What Nashville Episcopal Area Mission Trip to East Congo

Who

- Clergy and Laity of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences (Nashville Episcopal Area)
- Persons who are led of God to make this trip and will return to their congregations and districts and tell the stories of what they have seen

When July 13-27, 2017

Why

- To support Bishop Bill McAlilly's missional focus on the East Congo Conference, led by Bishop Gabriel Unda Yemba, who preached at the 2014 Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences
- To multiply familiarity among churches in the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences with the great needs of United Methodist people of God in the East Congo Conference
- To build a center for women victimized by the ongoing wars and conflicts in the East Congo area

Cost $4,500-$5,000 per person

Deadline to Commit and Team Meeting Date Saturday, Jan. 28, 2017

Persons committing to the trip will meet at Buffalo United Methodist Church (15465 Highway 13 South, Hurricane Mills, TN 37078) at 10 a.m. and must bring a $300 deposit. The Jan. 28 meeting is a required meeting for mission team members.

More Information

- Rev. Randy Cooper fumc@citlink.net | 731-587-2689