The United Methodist Women of the Memphis Conference endorse as a candidate for the Office of Bishop Rev. Autura Eason-Williams. Rev. Eason-Williams has been an outstanding leader and administrator throughout her service to the United Methodist Church. She has been an effective spiritual leader in churches and committees in which she has served and has been and continues to be a spiritual leader for United Methodist Women.

Rev. Eason-Williams has a huge love for the United Methodist Church and shares that love in many areas from caring for her congregation to serving God in any capacity put before her. She is a minister and leader for all God's children through her commitment to transformation and justice.

Rev. Eason-Williams is a living example of John Wesley's quote Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, as long as ever you can.

The United Methodist Women of the Memphis Conference are honored to endorse Rev. Autura Eason-Williams.
