- Intentional group conversations for processing and sharing -- a time for fostering spiritual growth.
- A program of Upper Room Ministries providing a time of silent reflection, retreat, rest, and renewal.

“But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.” (Jeremiah 31:33)

Join us as we consider how God has always called God’s people to covenant living with God, neighbor, and all of creation.

An Outstanding Faculty

Rabbi David M. Horowitz is the rabbi emeritus of Temple Israel in Akron, Ohio. He received his Bachelor’s in English Literature from Tulane University, his Bachelor of Hebrew letters, Master of Arts, Ordination and Doctor of Divinity (honoris Causa) from the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Cincinnati, Ohio. Rabbi Horowitz has taught philosophy and theology at Calumet College in Indiana and courses in Ethnic Studies at Kent State University. He lectures to academic and religious institutions as well as corporations internationally. He is also a frequent and popular presenter at the Two Year Academy for Spiritual Formation.

Phileena Heuertz is a spiritual director, guide of spiritual retreats, and author of the book Pilgrimage of a Soul. With a rare gift for communicating the dynamics of the inner life, Phileena gracefully guides others toward growth and transformation. After twenty years of grassroots work in some of the world’s poorest slums and places of intense human suffering, Phileena and her husband, Chris, founded an organization called Gravity. Gravity’s purpose is to support the development of Christian consciousness by making contemplative practice available to those who engage the challenging social justice perils of our time.
